

Clean Cities Transportation

Workshop for Almaty

Speakers

Stanislav Kim

Stanislav Kim graduated from Kazakh National State University named after Al-Farabi with a Masters degree in Environmental Management in 2000. Since the late 90's, Mr. Kim has been GIS operator in the NGO "Institute of Ecology and Sustainable Development" and National Expert on Databases and Information in the frame of Caspian Environmental Program. Shortly after being appointed as Project Assistant in UNDP/GEF Project "In-situ Conservation of Kazakhstan's Mountain Agrobiodiversity in Kazakhstan", Mr. Kim began serving as a Senior Program Assistant in UNDP Kazakhstan, Environment Management for Sustainable Development Unit and National Coordinator of GEF Small Grants Program . Since 2010 Mr. Kim has served as Head of Energy and Environment Department at UNDP Kazakhstan.